

SITE CONDITIONS AND RELEASE

(Revised: May 17, 2025)

Customer authorizes and invites Pro Box Portable Storage (“PROBOX”) to enter the Equipment location for the purpose of delivery, pickup, and/or relocation of the Equipment.

Customer confirms they have inspected the site and ensured it is ready for delivery, with stable ground, sufficient space, and clear access for PROBOX’s trucks and equipment.

All on-site activity, including delivery, pickup, loading, unloading, or relocation, shall be under the direction and supervision of the Customer or their representative.

Customer releases and holds PROBOX harmless from any claims or damage related to site conditions or equipment delivery, pickup, or relocation, unless caused by PROBOX’s gross negligence or willful misconduct. This includes damage to roads, driveways, curbing, landscaping, buildings, vehicles, underground systems (such as septic tanks or conduits), and any third-party claims.

Customer agrees to pay all towing charges or site-related costs resulting from any failed or problematic delivery, pickup, or relocation attempt.
